Dear Daughters,

Greetings to you all from the Pioneer Memorial Museum in Salt Lake City, headquarters of International Society Daughters of Utah Pioneers. The front doors are locked and we are closed to the public, but the Museum is generally buzzing with activity as members of the International Board, while following the rules of social distancing, are working to fulfill their responsibilities. Phones are being answered, lessons written, books delivered, bills paid, mail opened, videos produced, curbside service offered, histories received, questions answered, and meetings held, while our full-time employees continue to watch over the Museum and care for

Ellen Jeppson ISDUP President

As we make plans for the future, we are reminded of the experiences of some of our earliest camps as they faced the challenges similar to those we are experiencing today. The following paragraph was found in the notes of the Abraham O. Smoot Camp, Utah South Center Company, written just

"During the greater part of 1919, meetings were discontinued due to the influenza and the press of war work which had taken so many of our members in the work outlined for other organizations. As an organization we did a great deal of sewing at the Red Cross rooms and also at our homes."

I know of many camps and companies that have worked together to sew masks, deliver groceries to neighbors, take meals to sick friends, contact lonely souls, and write to camp and company members. We have also had a great resurgence of pioneer histories being sent for our history file and pioneer photographs to our photo department.

We ask all companies and camps to use an abundance of caution as you plan for the 2020-2021 DUP year. Please make decisions on a monthly basis about meetings and other gatherings that will keep all Daughters safe. We are confident our situations will improve as time goes by. Until then, suggestions for safe meetings include: meeting outside, making a video of a lesson, organizing a ZOOM meeting, reading the lesson and calling a friend in your camp to talk about it, present a lesson using a conference call, email a lesson synopsis to all camp members, choose a favorite part of the lesson to pass along via email or mail, or divide a camp into smaller groups for a safe, short discussion. The list of possibilities is endless.

Please check the homepage of isdup.org regularly to find messages that are of importance to members of the organization. We post all bulletins, notice of special programs available, Seminar/Convention training, new items for sale, and other information that we think would be helpful.

Thank you to all members of Daughters of Utah Pioneers who dedicate their time, leadership, and service to the society. We know much of what our Pioneer ancestors sacrificed for us. We show our appreciation, admiration, and love to them by emulating their lives and remembering their stories.

With respect and gratitude, Ellen Jeppson

From the Editor

It was so exciting to see the many articles and pictures coming from our camps and companies for this issue. Even with our health restrictions, our members are finding ways to serve and stay in touch with each other. Thank you all for your contributions.

Just a note — because of limited space in the Legacy, the editorial board has voted to print only one article and picture from a camp in an issue. Also, it will be edited to space available. Some have asked me not to "cut" their articles, but this is impossible in order to have lots of camps and companies represented. I know you will understand. Please keep your great activities coming. They are the highlight of the Legacy.

NEW SATELLITE MUSEUM CHAIRMAN

Isabell Oleson Stringham hails from Davis County, Utah. The youngest of seven children, she was born and raised in West Point where her grandparents homesteaded a family farm on the "sandridge." As a teenager, her family moved to Bountiful where she and her family have lived since. Isabell earned an associate degree from LDS Business College and later attended BYU. She served an LDS mission to her ancestral country, Sweden, after which she was married to her perfect match, Joseph Stringham. They have two children and 15 grandchildren who are the delight of their lives.

Isabell taught school for 20 years at Carden Memorial School, retiring in 2002. She operated a successful piano studio until 2014, when she and her husband served a family history mission in Taiwan. Isabell joined DUP in 1992 and has written and collected extensive histories of her 24 pioneer ancestors. She has served in various positions on the Davis Heritage Company board for nearly 24 years and also in the Val Verda Camp.

ISDUP SECRETARY RETIRES

Most organizations do not like change in their personnel, but it was even more so when our long-time secretary, receptionist and all-round "go to" person in our front office retired. Marsha Brant has been with us for many years and has been invaluable in her contribution to our DUP work. She is the one who graciously answered the phone, transfered your calls and helped you with any questions you had. She did much of the work on many ISDUP tours, as well as watching our inventory and keeping the Board equipped with what they needed. It is always hard to replace a valued employee but Marsha will also be missed as a dear friend to all of us. Good luck in your future and be sure to come see us often, Marsha.

WRITE YOUR OWN HISTORY

If you are confining yourself to your home, it is a great time to start or continue writing your personal history. When a member was confined to bed for two years with a broken pelvis, she started writing her story to give to her family. She had it published and gave it as Christmas presents. It was a thrill for her whole family to learn many things about their mother and grandmother that they had never known. Be sure to include personal historic information on your ancestors, as well as your own story. This will be a priceless document when we are no longer here to tell our story.

AUGUST 4TH BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

It is tradition to celebrate all ISDUP board members' birthdays at one event. This year the party was held at the Museum with a special birthday cupcake and all the virus recommendations being observed. In the past, a luncheon has been held at the Lion House, but the party was just as fun at the Museum, and with most board members in attendance. It is great that events can continue to be held even if they have to be modified. Remember this when your camp or company needs to change plans. Be creative and still have fun. Many camps are meeting in parks with masks and staying six feet apart, but still enjoying each other's company. What can you do to make it work for you?

PHYLLIS ABPLANALP CHATWIN CELEBRATES 105 YEARS

On May 6, 2020, Phyllis Abplanalp Chatwin turned 105 years old. To honor the occasion, many neighbors drove by her house in a birthday parade or gathered on the front lawn as a dear friend played "Happy Birthday" on his trumpet. Even the Governor of Utah invited Phyllis to attend his annual luncheon to honor centenarians.

Because family is so important to Phyllis, she joined the DUP in 1984 and has been a member for 36 years in the Salt Lake East Bench Company of the Yalecrest Camp, Salt Lake City, Utah. She served as Camp Treasurer and hosted many meetings in her house.

TRIBUTE TO DOREEN BATEMAN

Lincoln Company, Star Valley, Wyoming, recently held a tribute for Doreen Bateman, a dedicated DUP member for twenty-two years. During that time, she became the guardian of the Baker Cabin in Etna, Wyoming, and a mentor of pioneer and family history. The Baker Cabin was built Doreen Bateman hosts a family history writing workshop in 2019.

The Baker Cabin was built in 1889 by a mother, Anna Eliza Baker, who was tired of living in an overturned wagon with six children while her husband was working in Montana. Doreen held this woman's tenacity for doing what had to be done close to her heart. The Cabin is co-sponsored by the Star Valley Historical Society and DUP Camp Eliza Crook.

At the time of her death on May 17, 2020, Doreen was serving as Captain of Camp Eliza and as 2nd Vice President of Lincoln Company, overseeing outreach projects. She will be missed by many.

SALT LAKE OLYMPUS COMPANY

Members of the Salt Lake Olympus Company are experts at finding creative ways to connect with family and friends — and even strangers in need — during the COVID-19 pandemic. Reaching out during these times of social isolation, they are devoting newfound time to help others. They have been crocheting caps and afghans to warm premature babies, writing personal and family histories, planting vegetable and flower gardens, caring for elderly family members, and cheering friends and family on Facetime and Zoom. They also have been enjoying lovely neighborhood walks and nature hikes, and staying safe by wearing masks and practicing social distancing.

LINDON CURLY SPRINGS CAMP

The Lindon Curly Springs Camp, Davis Layton Company, visited the Pleasant Grove Daughters of Utah Pioneer Museum. What a great idea to visit other camp and company museums.

DUP DAUGHTER REUNITED WITH CLASS RING

Rosalie Hamilton

Rosalie Hamilton, Moon Valley Camp, Maricopa West Company in Arizona, sent in this amazing story.

A few years ago, I became reconnected with a fellow high school student, Peggy Sabey, from Wasatch High School in Heber City, Utah. We discovered we were distantly related through my grandmother Hamilton. She is also a member of the Hawthorne DUP Camp in Midway, Utah, the same one my grandmother, Martha Jane Shelton Hamilton, was a charter member and honorary member, as she crossed the plains as a child.

Early in June I received a message from Peggy telling me to call a friend of hers who had exciting news for me. When I called Jolene Cox the next day, she told me her parents had bought the property of my husband's parents and she still lived there. While she and her daughter, Dona Sharp, were digging up a broken sprinkler in the back lawn, they discovered a girl's class ring from 1957. They decided to try to locate the owner and looked up the senior year of the Class of 1957 and since it had initials on it, they were able to find the only girl in the class with the initials "RH." They did not know me. So, they put it on Facebook and my friend Peggy saw it. Thanks to Peggy, Jolene and Dona for a most wonderful surprise. My now husband lost my ring before we graduated in 1957. I received my precious ring in great condition on June 10th.

UNIQUE PROJECT FOR DESERET DOLLS CAMP

The Deseret Dolls Camp, Davis Layton Company, Layton, Utah, decided to reach out to the community with a new goal they had not tried yet. When they sought and requested an opportunity to serve hot dogs and sodas at an RC Willey store, an invitation was extended with the help of Terri Finlinson, an employee.

The Deseret Dolls were trying to earn funds to assist the Camp financially. This act of service, which was extremely fun for them, would accomplish both Camp wishes.

The Deseret Dolls distinguished their Camp by wearing special aprons with an emblem showing dolls and the slogan "I ♥ D.U.P." Later on, they also added red bonnet pins. They even brought along a mascot, Kurt Randall, who provided great support.

ECHO CAMP IS A FAMILY AFFAIR

Nine out of fifteen members of Echo Camp, South Bannock Company, Pocatello, Idaho, belong to one family. Lois Browning is 92 years old. She is the mother of Janet, Carla, Elise and Joyce, aunt to Linda, grandmother to JaNae, great-grandmother to MaKayla and Alyssa. Lois was Echo Camp Captain and South Bannock Company President. She also held other offices in the Camp and Company. Janet was South Bannock Company President and is the current Echo Camp Captain. Linda has also been the Echo Camp Captain.

WILLOW CAMP IN KANAB, UTAH

Members of the Willow Camp, Kane Company, Kanab, Utah, took a trip to Lee's Ferry and the Lonely Dell Cemetery in October of 2019. Some of the Daughters have relatives buried in the cemetery. Kern Nuttall, author of In a Better Place, Cemeteries & Gravesites of Grand Canyon, told about the history of those buried there and a few of the Daughters added some additional information about their ancestors. Lunch was then eaten on the lawn by the orchard, where the Park Ranger let us pick fruit to eat. It was an informative and pleasant experience for all who attended.

RANDOLPH, UTAH, CELEBRATES SESQUICENTENNIAL

On March 14, 1870, the first settlers came sleighing into the Bear River Valley with their ox teams. The first group of settlers from St. Charles, Idaho, led by Randolph H. Stewart, camped on the knoll south of the present townsite. A week later, Apostle Charles C. Rich came and assisted in laying out the town and named it Randolph. This year marks the 150th anniversary of Randolph, Utah.

The Randolph DUP Relic Hall and the "nail jail" were open for tours from 2:00-5:00 p.m. on Fridays throughout the month. The Relic Hall (Museum) is in need of some maintenance work and the DUP has been busy with fundraisers. They have produced a booklet, The Tale of Our Town — Randolph Utah. Copies are available at the Information Center in Randolph for $3.00 per copy or may be purchased online and shipped to you for $5.00 per copy.

The Daughters of Utah Pioneers camp/company was organized in Randolph in 1932 with Lois Della Snowball McKinnon as president. In 1917, the camps in Randolph and Woodruff combined into one camp, and to be more inclusive, changed their name to Camp Crawford Mountain. Current officers are Terry Huffaker, Camp Captain, and Suzanne Arnold, Rich Company President.

The Nail Jail and DUP Relic Hall in Randolph, Utah were two of the places on the self-guided tour.

FREMONT INDIAN STATE PARK

Just west of Richfield and off Highway 89, you will find a wonderful Indian Museum with movies, displays and a gift shop. The Fremont Indians left hundreds of pictographs and petroglyphs on the walls of the canyon with great hiking trails and a river running through the canyon. Secluded campgrounds are perfect for the whole family and an historic cabin restored by the Barnson Family is situated on a picnic site with rest rooms, tables and historic markers.

Even with the restrictions we have with the COVID-19 virus, there is still much fun that we can have taking short or overnight trips and camping with family. Don't let isolation cause you depression or anxiety. Read the Legacy for great things to do.

OREGON/CALIFORNIA TRAIL MUSEUM MONTPELIER, IDAHO

One of the most exciting pair of museums that you will find is in Montpelier, Idaho. The National Oregon/

California Trail Museum presents living history tours beginning with a tour showing how guns were made, a pioneer store, and a covered wagon ready to leave for the West. Guests then get on a covered wagon to hear tales from the mouths of the pioneers. After leaving the wagon, you visit various campsites with Oregon/California Trail Museum living history demonstrations. Exiting the Museum, you see a pictorial display of the Oregon/California Trail.

The Rails & Trails Museum, located at the Oregon/California Trail Museum, strives to preserve and display artifacts and exhibits which demonstrate the heritage of the Bear Lake Valley. It includes the Railroad Exhibit, Daughters of Utah Pioneers Exhibit and an exhibit from the Bear Lake County Historical Society. On special occasions, a quilt display is found upstairs. The Museum is located in a beautiful park with all conveniences for a picnic and family fun, 320 North 4th Street, 208-847-3800. It has just reopened and closes at 3:00 p.m.

SPRINGVILLE MUSEUM OF ART OPENS

It is welcome news that the Springville Museum of Art is once again open. If you haven't visited it, you have really missed something. The Museum features work by the famous sculptor, Cyrus E. Dallin, as well as many other well-known Utah artists. The sculpture garden is gorgeous this time of year and hosts are available for tours or to answer questions. A large collection of Russian art, as well as displays of local artists, on a rotating basis, is also available. Be sure and visit the gift shop. There is a large selection of books on art subjects, as well as unusual gifts. There is much to do during this hard time with the Covid-19 virus, but we need to keep thinking positively and find creative ways to have fun with our families.

HOW TO TEACH PIONEER SCHOOL DURING A PANDEMIC

Jeneal Wilson (Stratford Camp Captain) was faced with the challenge of teaching Mr. Pieter Lingen's 4th grade Highland Park Elementary class how school might have been during pioneer times. She has taught a pioneer school class many times before, but not during a pandemic.

Dressed in her pioneer bonnet, dress, and apron, and using all her usual props, she became Miss Wilson, recording her school day on a cell phone.

First she explained a few details of how a teacher could be paid during pioneer times, where the school could be held (bowery, wagon, church or one room schoolhouse), the lack of paper and pencils, girls on one side of the classroom, boys on the other side, and that we were a territory, not yet a state. She also encouraged the students to notice the differences between the schools of today and those of the pioneer past.

PORTRAIT OF HELEN WHYTOCK MONCUR McKELL DONATED TO THE MUSEUM

Last fall, we at Pioneer Memorial Museum were approached by Mr. James Blair Moncur of Idaho Falls, Idaho. He had a portrait he was interested in donating. The portrait is truly beautiful, and the subject has a very interesting story.

We gladly accepted the portrait. However, the painting had suffered considerable damage over the years. In December, our President, Ellen Jeppson, was approached by the employees of Sky Satellite. They were interested in making a donation to the Museum and hoped that we had a project we could put the funds toward. This was to be a surprise Christmas present for the owners of the company, Wayne and Vicki Chambers (our ISDUP Recording Secretary). Ellen mentioned the possibility of restoring the painting and they were excited about it. Vicki said that when the employees presented this most meaningful gift to them at their Christmas party, she was shocked and cried for joy.

We contacted a local art restorer, Carol Wilson, and asked her if she would be able to do the restoration work for us. We have now received the restored picture back at the Museum. It will be hung in the Lecture Room.

The subject of the painting is Helen Whytock Moncur McKell. Helen was born in Auchtermuchty, Fifeshire, Scotland. She married Robert Moncur of Dundee, Scotland, in 1838 at the age of 18. They had two children. Robert was in ill health and died just seven years after their marriage. The year following his death, Helen married Robert McKell who had worked with her first husband in the trade of building coaches and carriages.

The McKell's became acquainted with The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints when a customer left a pamphlet in their store. They inquired about the pamphlet and became interested enough to join the Church.

They left Scotland in January of 1850 aboard the ship Argo, bound for America. After arriving in New Orleans, they took a riverboat to St. Louis. They then went to Council Bluffs, Iowa. They spent some time there preparing for the journey west. They arrived in the Salt Lake Valley in September of 1852.

They settled in Palmyra, Utah, where they lived in a cave through the winter until they could build a house. For the next three and a half years, Helen practiced her trade as a fine dressmaker. She died at the age of 37, just three days before Robert married his second wife.

MILLARD EAST CAMP RESTORATION MARKER #8

Larry Gehre recently restored the DUP marker in Fillmore, Utah. The marker was originally completed in 1935. It marks the southwest corner of a fort built in 1851. Larry is known locally as "The Rock Man." He replaced missing rocks, mixing mortar to match the original and applied a sealant to help preserve and protect the marker. He graciously volunteered his time, and needed materials were donated by Roper Lumber. Julie Olsen, Company President and DUP members appreciate Larry for the work he did to preserve this marker.

JOIN DAUGHTERS OF UTAH PIONEERS

We are a group of thoroughly modern women of all ages who meet monthly to learn about our pioneer heritage in an atmosphere of camaraderie. We need you to find those daughters in your area that would love to share in this legacy. Let them know that we meet once a month and each meeting includes a well-researched lesson about the early pioneers as well as a personal pioneer history presented by a member of the camp. Please invite your friends to your camp and let them know there is always "room for one more daughter."

Books and music CDs will continue to be sold at the Carriage House, behind the Museum on Apricot Avenue, through October. This service is by appointment only on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Call 801-532-6479 Ext. 200 to place orders. You can also purchase through the ISDUP website.

VIRTUAL VIDEO

Due to the COVID-19 virus, the Annual Convention and Seminar were cancelled. President Ellen Jeppson prepared a video giving the ISDUP President Report and Mary Shumway gave the officer training. The new website is also discussed. Visit the homepage of our website at www.isdup.org to view these videos.

GIVING LESSONS DURING A PANDEMIC

COVID-19 didn't derail a lesson leader from South Weber Camp, Davis Clearfield Company from giving her May lesson. Loreen Poff prepared an individual bag for each daughter in her camp with lesson materials, along with a commemorative pin denoting Women's Suffrage.

This was an amazing "outreach" effort within a camp and would be something other lesson leaders could follow if we cannot start meeting in September.

What a creative and unique idea. Congratulations, Loreen.

Pioneer Mysteries

These two ladies had their portrait taken by F. D. Huish in Payson, Utah. The photo is part of our unknown collection of Utah Photographers. We have no information on the two ladies. The photographer, Franklin David Huish, was born in Monmouthshire. Wales. in 1854 and died in Salt Lake City on August 4, 1925. He is listed as a photographer in the 1910 US Census.

We would like to give names to these ladies and learn more about them. If you recognize them, please contact us at photo@isdup.org.
