Summer 2015

Dear Daughters,

Has it been a long, hot summer, or what? I'm sure that you have had memorable vacations, fun pioneer celebrations and family reunions. We had an exciting Pioneer Open House here at the museum on the 24th of July. A huge crowd (about 500)

Maurine P. Smith

visited and enjoyed our displays and the outstanding music presented by very accomplished musicians. It was delightful to hear the old pump organ ring throughout the museum. Have you read my favorite children's pioneer story book, "The Trail of Sunflowers"? It is beautifully illustrated and written by Kathy J. Hodgman, who we invited to demonstrate her watercolor skills. What a treat that was! We also had the Blacksmith, Gerald Cooper, return with his blacksmithing setup. That was a traffic stopper. He was at the back, east side of the museum next to our driveway and Columbus Street, going past the museum. I mean it was a real traffic stopper. This was the kids favorite. And the big kids (dads) favorite, too. Yes, we served refreshments of homemade bread and butter. It was a party after all. It was good to see many of you with your families here to share in the fun of the day.

This has been a busy year for us in many ways. The marker ladies have been working overtime. In just one year's time we have dedicated 15 markers. Of those 15 markers, seven of them have been re-dedications. I really do commend our daughters for their outstanding work to see that these markers are cared for and replaced when they go missing. No. They don't just go someplace; they are stolen. When this happens our daughters have to raise the money to have the plaque re-made and installed. Then we re-dedicate the marker. I have recently had calls about two more that have been stolen. When we do replace markers, they are not made of bronze, but of an alloy that does not have the precious metals that the thieves desire. It breaks my heart each time I get one of these calls. Then it makes me mad all over again and then sad that these people do not know, understand or appreciate the stories and history they are destroying.

This brings to mind another item I need to share with you. Some of our camps and companies are amazing fund raisers and are able to accumulate a healthy sum in their coffers. This is wonderful. But, we need to know how and where we can spend DUP money in the most appropriate ways. Of course, first and foremost, you are purchasing the four DUP books each year. They make great gifts for friends, family or libraries if you have already added to your collection. Remember, DUP is our favorite charity. You are free to donate your own personal money to whatever causes you choose and feel are worthy of supporting, but not from DUP funds. You can help your ladies to attend ISDUP leadership seminar and convention. Defraying some of the cost will benefit your group by their attendance. You may also help other DUP camps or companies who are trying to raise funds to place markers or make improvements to a museum. Your group would be acknowledged for their generous donation. This has been done in some instances by our daughters in the tri-city area of Washington State. They do not have spots to mark for the Utah pioneers so they have helped others do this and it is so appreciated. If you would like to help in this way, let us know and we can put you in touch with those who need some help to place a marker. To make improvements to a museum there are grants available for museums to apply for. Notice the grants awarded in this newsletter. These things are what we are about, we are women concerned about the future generations knowing of the strength of the past. We are "Daughters of the Future – Keepers of the Past."

Another update on the Black Locust Tree Project; the seeds germinated very well. We even had sixty seedling trees for sale at the Leadership Seminar. We will have more available at the upcoming ISDUP Convention, October 10, at the Davis Conference Center. Mark this on your calendar if you have not yet done so. I told you in the last issue about Elaine Brewster, who will be our keynote speaker on the Pony Express Riders. This will be so special. You will not want to miss this one.

Also, this is the election year for International Officers. If you want to have your voice heard, you had better be there.

That brings me to my latest favorite "Pickles" cartoon. Little Wilber asks Pickles, "Grampa, if you could know just one thing about the future, what would it be?" Pickles: "One thing, huh? Well, I guess I'd want to know where I was going to die." Wilber: "How come you'd want to know that?" Pickles: "Because then I just wouldn't go there." My sentiments, exactly. Thank you, Dorothy Anderson, for the fun book of "Pickles Cartoons."

I look forward to seeing many of you on October 10th at ISDUP Convention.

Love and best wishes, Maurine

WELCOME NEWEST ISDUP BOARD MEMBERS VERNA HAZELBAKER, LEGACY NEWSLETTER

Verna Hazelbaker

Verna is a native of California. Her pioneer ancestors, the Black, Petersen, and Allred families had roots in Ireland, England, and Denmark. In Manchester, England, the Black family found the Gospel through Joseph Fielding and Samuel Clayton. Converting, they immigrated to Nauvoo, eventually ending up in southern Utah where they helped colonize as well as the Petersen and Allred families.

While in California, Verna enjoyed serving as Sacramento DUP Company president, Sloughhouse Pioneer Cemetery chairperson, FamilySearch missionary, and California Roseville Mission genealogy program developer. Graduating in Technical Communications and Graphic Design, she managed documentation for Hewlett-Packard. Skills developed over a 20-year career serves her well as Legacy editor. When she isn't writing she enjoys being with her 12 grandchildren, the great outdoors, gardening, drawing, or doing genealogy. She is a soon-to-be member of the Manila Camp, Utah Timpanogos Valley Company.

COUNTRY FAIR JUBILEE

A Country Fair Jubilee atmosphere prevailed May 23rd as seven Davis Farmington Camps met together at the historic Farmington Rock Church to celebrate Brigham Young's birthday and participate in demonstrations on pioneer skills used in the 1800s. Jeanmarie Bassett, outgoing company president, orchestrated and conducted the Saturday event with help from company board members.

During the meeting, ISDUP 1st vice president Joleen Barker installed new company president Gloria Armstrong and her board. Kathy Mitton, a descendant of Brigham Young and a member of the Lucy Ann Wright Rigby Camp, spoke of Brigham's early days in the Utah Territory and how early pioneers adjusted to hard life as they toiled to make the desert blossom as a rose.

Camps gave demonstrations in the cultural hall on pioneer skills such as quilting by the Helen Mar Miller Camp; embroidering and handiwork by the Steed Creek Camp; knitting by the Compton Bench Camp; pie making by the North Farmington Camp; jam preservation by the Antelope Island Camp; churning butter by the Lucy Ann Wright Rigby Camp; and darning socks by the Aurelia Spencer Rogers Camp.

The Fair was attended by over 75 daughters and guests. For summer fun, don't forget the Charles Penrose Cabin, located behind and to the east of the Rock Church on Farmington's Main Street.

COUCH RESCUED

In 1870, thirteen-year-old Samuel Lewellen Davis from Tooele County, Utah, went up to the forest and cut down cedar posts. He journeyed to Salt Lake City, sold the posts, and bought a couch for his mother. A section of the couch pulled out to make a double bed. This lounge traveled from Salt Lake City to St. Johns, to Springville, Utah, Parker, Idaho, and then on to Las Vegas, Nevada. It stayed in the Davis family until Temperance Davis donated it to the Clark County Nevada DUP about 1950. The Adobe Museum building of the Old Las Vegas Mormon Fort Nevada State Historic Park housed the antique.

A fire in 2010 damaged the couch and it lay outside until March 2015. Then Kent Weaver, son of Maria Weaver, of the Purple Sage Camp, began restoration. He completely dismantled the couch and the broken or burned parts were repaired or replaced, sanded, and then painted. Kent used the original square-headed nails to reassemble the couch. The couch is now back on display in the museum. Marva Davis, the daughter-in-law of Temperance, is also a member of the Purple Sage Camp.

HIGH DESERT DRUMS CAMP JUBILEE CELEBRATION

Daughters in the Elmore Company, High Desert Drums Camp, from Mountain Home, Idaho recently celebrated the end of their year with a Jubilee visit to Three Island Crossing State Park and Interpretive Center in Glenns Ferry, Idaho. Three Island State Park is an important stop along the Oregon Trail. Pioneers who chose to travel this route used the help of Native American guides to help them cross the Snake River using three small islands in the river as "stepping stones." Wagon ruts are still visible on the south side of the river and volunteers used to reenact this dangerous crossing until just a few years ago.

During their visit, the six daughters put their knowledge to the test by packing a miniature covered wagon with the necessary items and enjoyed a video presentation on the history of this crossing. The hands-on Interpretive Center was informative and the daughters were treated to a Native American folk story reading by a volunteer.

Following a picnic lunch near the river, the daughters toured the Historical Museum in Glenns Ferry, which is housed in the location of the old schoolhouse.

SUNFLOWER PATCH JUBILEE

Sunflower Patch Camp, the most recently formed camp of Clark Nevada Desert Springs Company, Las Vegas Nevada just completed its first year as a member of DUP! This year's jubilee was a western theme with western food and music. We provided costumes for each camp to dress up in and have their picture taken. We were also busy attending ISDUP seminars and conventions, holding our first jubilee, and recruiting members. We attended activities at the Mormon Fort in Las Vegas and participated in the Outreach programs. Everyone has greatly enjoyed the monthly meetings.

MORMON ISLAND CAMP

Daughters of the Mormon Island Camp, Sacramento Company, held their closing social at the local Family History Center on May 26th. Deanna Johnson, Camp Secretary, arranged time one month ahead with Director Gordon Orchard, who enlightened everyone on updates for using Legacy, FamilySearch, and Ancestry. John Hansen, at the request of Director Orchard, shared other important information about genealogy.

Afterward, the camp went to the Mission Oaks Park for a potluck lunch. We enjoyed special company guest, Loretta Mullen, visiting from the Sacramento Company. Jewell Bakes presented the May lesson.

GOATHILL CAMP FESTIVITIES

Carole Call, captain of the Goathill DUP in Costa Mesa, California and other members of the camp enjoyed a special outing to Goathill Junction. Goathill Junction has one of the largest miniature train layouts on the west coast. Founded in 1988, the Orange County Model Engineers is a group of local railroad buffs. Many of the group worked for the real railroads and now enjoy trains as a hobby. Riding Goathill Junction trains is fun for both adults and kids. We had a wonderful meeting there and enjoyed taking a ride.

PIONEER CABIN ON WHEELS!

The Miles Goodyear Camp with support of the Weber West Company DUP members located in Ogden, Utah designed and worked with the Mill Creek Youth Center in Ogden to build a replica of an early pioneer cabin with the interior decorated to reflect an early pioneer Christmas.

This cabin will be displayed for many years to come in the Ogden City Christmas Village each Christmas season. Thousands of people and families attend this event and this cabin will serve as an excellent outreach opportunity.

The yearlong effort was spearheaded by Diane Malan, Weber West Company Outreach officer and Emily Gibson, Miles Goodyear Camp outreach.

SACAJAWEA CAMP ARTIFACT

Daughter Sydney Hale brought a little first edition 1840 leather-bound edition of an LDS hymnbook, printed for the saints in England. On the front page of the book, there are the names of Brigham Young, Parley P. Pratt, and John Taylor. It appears to have been printed in Manchester, England. The hymnbook does not contain music, but rather words only with the hymns numbered.

Sydney is a descendant of Brigham Young. She received the hymnbook from her mother, Lucile Winder Croxall Clegg (granddaughter of Carolyn Young who was married to George Q. Canon). Lucile is the great-granddaughter of Brigham Young through Emily Dow Partridge.

EE-DA-HOW CAMP BIRTHDAY PARTY

The Ee-da-how Camp celebrated the 168th birthday of Ellis Reynolds Ship who crossed the plains at age five. Ellis wrote song number 231, "Father Cheer Our Souls Tonight," in the LDS Hymnbook. Deanna Packer shared the history of her great-great-grandmother Ship, who received many Utah honors. Joyce Orton displayed a willow sewing basket as her artifact. It belonged to her great-great-grandmother, Adelia Ann Brown Standley. It was Joyce's gift from her mother, Emma Woodland, who died in 1963 at the age of 97.

Mount Nebo Camp Pioneer Cabin, Mona, Utah, ($500),
American Fork DUP Museum, American Fork, Utah, ($1,000),
Miss Mary Historical Museum, Salina, Utah, ($1,000),

Tooele Pioneer DUP Museum, Tooele, Utah, ($1,000),
McQuarrie Memorial DUP Pioneer Museum, St. George, Utah, ($1,400).

FT. UNION PIONEER CEMETERY MEMORIAL DAY

In the hushed early morning of Memorial Day, reflections of our pioneer heritage were shared with DUP members and guests at the Ft. Union Cemetery on Creek Road at 1300 East 7400 South, Salt Lake City, Utah. This unique cemetery, first used as a private plot, later became the final resting place for victims of the small pox epidemic in the community. Between 1971 and 1977, the Paul and Mildred Greer family, county and LDS Church deeded portions of the cemetery to the DUP. Today the Salt Lake Far South East Company has the responsibility of taking care of this sacred ground. They do an outstanding job keeping the grounds clean and inviting. They have restored markers, planted trees, fixed fences, and made remarkable improvements. With the support of local Boy Scout troops, there are comfortable benches for guests to sit on. Both prominent early citizens of Union and others came to rest here, such as Green Flake, the African slave who drove Brigham Young's wagon.

Markers

In a typical spirit of DUP cooperation and unity, two companies, Tooele County and Tooele Valley, held twin rededication celebrations for their respective DUP Markers #1 and #118, and a shared Jubilee. For additional information and locations of other DUP markers, a new edition of the Marker Directory is now available online at isdup.org, or for purchase at the Pioneer Memorial Museum.

SETTLER'S PARK MARKER #1

On June 6, 2015, Tooele County Company DUP held their rededication of the plaque placed on the monument made from quartzite and granite at Settlers Park in Tooele, Utah. Special guest included Maurine Smith, ISDUP President, and Katherine Brimhall, ISDUP Marker Chairman. Lynne Bevan, president of Tooele County Company, unveiled the new plaque made from a metal alloy, which replaced the stolen bronze marker. The marker at the park is the Number 1 marker in the state. According to minutes of a 1933 DUP meeting, Tooele County DUP members were told at a convention in the fall that yearly dues of ten cents from every registered member would buy all the markers needed, and that the first county getting in 100% of their marker dues would get the first marker for their monument. Tooele County DUP paid their 100% dues in November 1933, and received the first official marker!

BLACK ROCK RESORT MARKER #118

A historic event happened on June 6, 2015. DUP, many friends and guests gathered to celebrate Brigham Young's birthday with a Jubilee and to rededicate the Black Rock Resort marker. This marker, disappeared several years ago. The marker located on the scenic overlook of the south tip of the Great Salt Lake near Black Rock commemorates several historic events. The six camps of Tooele Valley Company (Benson Grist Mill, Deseret, Helen Gillespie Shields, Hilda A Erickson, Rose Springs, and Willow Creek) all located in Erda, Grantsville, Stansbury Park, and Lake Point, Utah, provided the financial support and participated in the ceremony and project.

The ceremony took place in Lake Point, Utah, not far from the site first visited by Brigham Young and early pioneers on July 27, 1847. President Young took a dip there and declared many other saints would someday enjoy coming there, too. Special partners in the project included Tooele County, the Tooele County Tourism Advisory Board, John Lambert, Abstract Masonry Restoration, Inc., and DUP International. Included in the program were excellent historical messages from Katherine Brimhall, ISDUP Recording Secretary and Marker Chair, and Maurine Smith, ISDUP President. Guests were entertained by a guest appearance of Brigham Young to help celebrate his birthday.

EARLY OREM CANALS MARKER #575

Karen Page, Utah North Center Company president, welcomed DUP, dignitaries, Provo Canal and Irrigation Company officials and a crowd of over 50 who had gathered for the Dedicatory Program. A brief history of the extraordinary efforts of early settlers, who worked tirelessly to bring water to their parched land, was given by Kaylene Phillips, Company Outreach. Katherine Brimhall, ISDUP Recording Secretary and Marker Chair, shared remarks and a "Water Master's Measuring Stick." Maurine Smith, ISDUP President, also commented on the efforts of the early settlers and commended Brian Page who designed and built the monument.

Outreach Programs

VINTAGE FASHION SHOW REACHES OUT

Caribou County Company Daughters of Utah Company Board hosted a successful Vintage Fashion Show. They decided showing pioneer fashions and other fashions spanning 100 years would be a great way to make money and perform outreach in the community. Local ladies modeled authentic clothing that included dresses and accessories from the 1860's to the 1960's. The monies raised will benefit efforts to preserve the historical memories of the past for future generations to enjoy. The emcee and owner of the clothes was DeAnn Gilbert Simonich from the Clearfield/Davis Utah DUP Company.

SARATOGA SPRINGS CAMP SCHOOL PROGRAM

On April 30, 2015, the Saratoga Springs Camp DUP presented a fun program honoring Utah pioneer heritage to 85 second and fifth grade children at American Preparatory Academy in Draper, Utah. The children have been studying Utah history this year. They listened attentively as camp members Alyce Brown, Linda Gassaway and Billie Hawkins told the students true ancestral stories. The children were impressed to see an American flag that was carried on the trip west by Alyce Brown husband's family. Songs sung by early pioneer children were again enjoyed by the group as they joined in singing to the guitar accompaniment of Judy Goodreach. The DUP members were dressed as early settlers to add to the pioneer atmosphere of the presentation. The children all wrote "Thank you" notes that were later presented in a book to the Saratoga Springs DUP Camp.

HISTORIC RECIPE COOKBOOK

The Grants Pass Camp of the Josephine Company, Grants Pass, Oregon, published "Josephine's Favorite Recipes" in April. All the recipes have a history with the members and some even go back several generations—although they've often been slightly modernized (lard out; vegetable oil in). Wendy Swanson took on the project. "It was a lot of fun—until I got to the index," she said. "That was a chore, but a handy thing to have in the book."

60-YEAR PIN AWARDED TO ANNE JENSEN

A 60-year pin was awarded to Alameda Company, Fremont, California, member Anne Jensen, who at age 19 joined DUP as a young mother in Mapleton, Utah. Her grandfather, James Hyrum Holley, at age one, rode with the Hunt Wagon Train that accompanied the Martin Handcart Company. A school bus was Anne's playhouse as a girl. Not only did her father drive the bus, but he also owned Mapleton's mercantile store, gas pump, cafe and motel, all known as Holley's Corner.

Anne Jensen

Anne Jensen not only has served many years as DUP company president and camp captain in Fremont, California, but completed two missions with her husband, Alma. They have six children, 20 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

MYSTERY SOLVED! LARONA IRENE BATES

Lorna Wuyts, of Fort Supply Camp/Uinta Wyoming Company, from Lyman, Wyoming called and identified the Spring 2015 mystery photo. It is her great-great-grandmother, LaRona Irene Bates, who was born 17 May 1856 in Erda, Utah and died 26 Nov 1900 in Bennington, Idaho. Her father was Ormus Ephraim Bates and her mother was Matilda Reeves. LaRona was married to Joseph Godfrey and then to William Henry Lee. Thank you Lorna!
