Newsletter Vol. 45 No. 4 Winter Issue • December 2022

Happy Holidays to all Members and Associates of Daughters of Utah Pioneers.

What a marvelous year we have had with Daughters of Utah Pioneers! We have celebrated the 175th anniversary of both the Mormon Battalion and the arrival of the Vanguard Company of pioneers in the Valley, participated in our first International Seminar/Convention, hosted a beautiful Royalty Scholarship event, introduced three new pins, welcomed more than 1,100 new members to DUP, and celebrated new markers in Atkinville and Clarkston, Utah. Along with all of the other projects we have participated in, it has been wonderful! To all of you who participated in these events, we give a resounding thank you!

Our pioneer ancestors continue to inspire us as we read their histories and stories. We are amazed by their ingenuity and thriftiness in difficult living circumstances. Maurine Smith once quoted Margaret Simmons Bennett Beck when she wrote about making dresses as a pioneer: "I remember the last homemade cloth dress I had. I spun the yarn, mother colored it and our folks wove it. It was a good dress for five years or more; then it was pieced into a quilt, where it did service for at least twenty years longer. [Another dress] was worn for best for a winter or two, then it was turned upside down and inside out and worn for a few more years. When the dresses got quite thin we wore them to work in during the summer and then quilted the skirts for petticoats for winter again. How that homemade cloth did wear!"

Another pioneer had a last minute idea that brought joy to her children. In the year 1856, Hannah Cornaby, immigrant to the Valley from England, wrote about a Christmas experience with her family. Her husband, Samuel, had traveled from their home in Spanish Fork, Utah, to Salt Lake City for business, leaving Hannah and her three children with little to eat. When he became ill and could not return home, Hannah sold some of the family's clothing so she could buy food. She remembered:

"Christmas Eve came, and my darlings, with childish faith, hung up their stockings, wondering if Santa Claus would fill them. With aching heart, which I concealed from them, I assured them they would not be forgotten; and they fell asleep with joyful anticipations for the morrow.

Not having a particle of sweetening, I knew not what to do. They must not, however, be disappointed. I then thought of some squashes in the house, which I boiled, then strained off the liquid, that, when simmered a few hours, made a sweet syrup. With this, and a little spice, I made gingerbread dough which, when cut into every conceivable variety of design, and baked in a skillet, (I had no stove), filled their stockings and pleased them as much as would the most fancy confectionaries."

This holiday season sets the stage for us to do a good deed, serve a little, help a lot, comfort a friend, give a hug, and embrace our blessings. Remember, we know much of what our Pioneer ancestors sacrificed for us. We show our appreciation, admiration, and love to them by emulating their lives and remembering their stories.

We extend our most heartfelt best wishes to all of you for a Yummy Thanksgiving, Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year!

With respect and gratitude, Ellen Jeppson

From the Legacy Editor

Many of you have already heard that I fell and broke my wrist and banged up my face in September. My black eye is not a pleasant sight. This is an explanation of why I haven't been able to answer e-mails as I am unable to use my computer or typewriter.

I do want to thank Regional Representatives who spoke or attended Conventions. I appreciate their work very much.

Please call me at 307-679-1364 if you need me. I feel great and look awful, but I do want to keep in touch. By the time you receive this issue of Legacy, I will have my cast off and hopefully will be back to my old self again.

PRESIDENT'S REQUEST

ISDUP President Ellen Jeppson issued a request to company presidents at the ISDUP Seminar for excess company funds to be forwarded to ISDUP. These funds will be used for camps or companies in need of help maintaining their DUP cabins and museums. Subsequently, Maricopa West Company responded with a generous donation. The same day the donation was received at ISDUP, the Jens Peter Benson Camp called the ISDUP treasurer's office with a question about their cabin in Newton, Utah. It soon became apparent, that despite their efforts to raise money and provide labor to prepare their cabin for public showing, their funds were not adequate. We were able to pair this donation from Maricopa West with the needs of the Jens Peter Benson Camp. This is a perfect example of President Jeppson's intent to donate excess funds. Hopefully, the DUP women from these two groups who are many miles apart, will be able to form new friendships through this exchange of funds.

SLOUGHHOUSE PIONEER CEMETERY CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

On September 10, 2022, The Sacramento Company Daughters of Utah Pioneers celebrated 50 years of stewardship of the Sloughhouse Pioneer Cemetery located in Elk Grove, California. Percy Foster Westerberger gifted the Sloughhouse Pioneer Cemetery to ISDUP in 1972 through his friendship with Norma Rickets, a descendant of Thomas Rhoads. Thomas Foster Rhoads and Elizabeth Forster Rhoads, with 14 of their children, settled the area in 1846.

Elaine Sharp, Sacramento DUP Company President, welcomed guests, followed by Posting of Colors and Pledge of Allegiance by Elk Grove Boy Scout Troop 288. The Mormon Pioneer Band accompanied guests in singing "America the Beautiful." Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, District 5, recognized the 50-year ISDUP stewardship of the cemetery with a Resolution Plaque.

Roberta Tanner, ISDUP Northern California Regional Representative, highlighted the 50-year history of the cemetery. Caretakers and volunteers donated many hours for the care and upgrading of the cemetery. Eagle Scout projects added fencing, footpaths with rails, tables and benches, and even a bathroom and toolshed. For the past 11 summers the cemetery has been open for tours on the 2nd and 4th Saturdays during the summer months.

NEW INFORMATION ON ISDUP WEBSITE

Pam Carson, ISDUP Librarian, recently compiled a list of new valuable information that is available on the ISDUP website. Click on Home, then click on Contact Us. There are new headings including Complete Board, First 25 Years, DUP Organization, DUP Executive Committee, and List of Presidents. You can click on the List of Presidents to see information for all of the past presidents, as well as Ellen Jeppson, our current President.

DISBANDED AND NEW CAMPS

New Camp — Washington Fields Camp, Washington East Company, Utah, was formed on August 1, 2022. Members were transferred in from other camps within the company.

Disbanded Camp — Watson Camp was combined with Bingham #1 Camp, Bingham South Company, Idaho, on August 24, 2022. The name of the new camp is Bingham #1/Watson.

UTAH DEATH CERTIFICATES

Do you need information on a pioneer ancestor who died in Utah? The Utah State Archives has the index online. It is free. The deaths are from 1905-1967. Go to archives.utah.gov/research/indexes. Or Google Utah Death Certificate Index. Enter the last name of the person you want to find. There are spelling errors so try alternate spellings for Jeppson, Jeppson, Jeppson, etc. The death date is accurate. Other information may have some errors depending on who gave the information to the coroner. You can learn the cause of death, such as a buggy accident or heart attack. You can learn where they are buried so you can find an ancestor on the Findagrave website. The names and birthplaces of the parents are listed. The last known address is listed. Remember, rural routes had no street names; they were farms. The occupation of the deceased is listed. Enjoy this resource.

For information on other western states go to abish.byui.edu/specialcollections/westernstates. You will get a list of locations with information such as: Western states marriage records, Arizona births and deaths, Idaho State Death Index 1911-1956, Eastern Idaho Death Records, and much more. Thanks to BYU for this informative website.

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

A common misconception is that a member must submit a new application if they change camps. Remember: once a member, always a member. Camp leadership needs to submit a Record Change Form for the transfer to take place.

Preferred names can be added to the Camp Roster when a member or associate would rather use a middle name instead of a first name. Submit that information on a Record Change Form.

We appreciate the efforts of and thank those leaders who submit an obituary with a death notice. Posting for the Daughter's Memorial in Legacy is in submission sequence. Expect names to appear six months or more following submission.

OAK COUNTRY CAMP PAYS TRIBUTE TO VAY AND CLIVE WALKER

Vay and Clive Walker recently received a well-deserved tribute from the members of the Oak Country Camp, Davis Layton Company, Layton, Utah.

Vay Walker comes from a long line of active DUP members, and has always been involved in family history. She has been teaching DUP lessons for the Camp for many years and her husband, Clive, has been an unofficial DUP member. Their joint lesson preparation has resulted in memorable videos, which have accompanied many of Vay's lesson presentations.

Clive Walker was a history major in college before changing his focus and receiving degrees in civil engineering and hydrology. In the many places the Walkers have lived, Clive has become an expert in the events that have shaped those areas. Vay received her education degree and has enjoyed finding creative ways to inspire her students. With Clive's computer skills in creating videos, they have combined their abilities to form an unbeatable team.

The Walkers have truly gone the extra mile to teach and strengthen their DUP camp members and instill in them an excitement for their history.

CAROL BARKER BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

On May 9, 2022, the Bear River Camp, Box Elder North Company, Bear River City, Utah, celebrated the birthday of one of our oldest members. Carol Barker celebrated her 93rd birthday with cake and pictures. A life tribute was given by Ann Davis, a good friend. She was also recognized with a 40-year membership pin. Her many accomplishments include Camp Captain for six years, music director for too many years to count, and many other duties. She was instrumental in the relocation of our DUP Cabin from Church property to the city park where it is now fenced and has a cover. She also hired a brickman to repair our DUP marker, and her son Lynn made a brick house to add to the top.

Carol says she is most proud that her mother was also a member and she has followed in her footsteps.

SUN BONNET CAMP VISITS BEEHIVE HOUSE

The Sun Bonnet Camp, Utah South Center Company, Spanish Fork, Utah, recently gathered their pioneer courage and set out to Salt Lake City to visit the Beehive House by way of Front Runner and TRAX trains. It was a great experience riding the trains, as many had never done that before. They ate lunch in the Nauvoo Café at the Joseph Smith Memorial Building and went to Beehive House for a tour. The tour guide was very knowledgeable and taught them about the wonderful historic house and those who lived there.

UINTA SPRINGS CAMP HOSTS QUILT SHOW

A quilt show was hosted by Daughters from Uinta Springs Camp, Sanpete North Company, Utah, on July 8-9, 2022, at the Fountain Green Dance Hall. Over 35 quilts made or owned by community quilters and DUP members of Fountain Green and Moroni were presented for the community event.

In addition, two camps of Daughters of Utah Pioneers displayed their 2022 quilts and offered these quilts for sale as a fundraising effort. Karla Coombs won the Best of Show: Three Years or Newer category with a paper-pieced wall hanging titled "Mystic Swirl."

The Best of Show DUP Category was awarded to Leslie Keisel for her "Garden of Rings" quilt.

Also, those attending the quilt show were invited to vote for their top three favorite quilts. Jean Beck was awarded the Best of Show, People's Choice for her Moda blocks quilt.

DISTRICT CONVENTION HELD IN TOOELE, UTAH

Judy Schneider, Tooele County President

The Tooele area DUP held their Convention on May 21, 2022. Members from the Tooele Valley Company, Tooele Grantsville Company, County Company Tooele attended. Rachelle Walker entertained with a medley of Western songs. Vicki Chambers and Isabelle Stringham from ISDUP were the speakers.

Vicki Chambers encouraged members to do four things. First, write your history; second, be vocal about DUP; third, come to the Museum in Salt Lake City; and fourth, focus on one ancestor's history a year.

WEBER COUNTY DUP PIONEER DAY ACTIVITIES

Supporters of Weber County DUP Museum gathered on June 25 to honor this year's local Royalty. The four Royalty were introduced by their Company Presidents and presented with a bouquet of flowers. They also received sashes and tiaras to wear during Pioneer Week activities. The Royalty for 2022 are Laura Call, Weber Roy Company; Patricia Layton, Weber Far South West Company; Ann Cragun, Weber North West Company; and Jean Wilson, Weber North Company.

The Royalty were busy in July. They appeared at local community celebrations, attended a devotional in the Ogden Tabernacle, were feted at the Ogden Pioneer Days Rodeo, and rode in the Ogden Pioneer Day Parade on July 25 in a horse-drawn buggy. They greeted family and guests at the Museum's annual Pioneer Days Open House.

The Crowning Ceremony was interrupted when a mama duck flew over the proceedings, anxiously quacking and drawing the curiosity of the crowd. Two of her ducklings had tumbled into a Museum window well as the duck family crossed the Museum grounds. Willow Warren, one of our Museum Vice Presidents, provided water for the ducklings as they waited to be reunited with their mama. The Museum is privileged to have visitors from many locales, but this feathered family was a first.

HUGH GOWANS' CABIN OPEN HOUSE

The Tooele County DUP held an Open House on July 24, 2022, for descendants of Hugh S. and Bessie Gowans. The event was held at the Gowans cabin that is located in Pioneer Plaza. Daughters worked hard the past two years to replace chinking between the logs which was crumbling. They also scraped the old paint from the ceiling, replaced the cracking plaster, and painted the inside.

About 30 descendants attended and enjoyed viewing the cabin and its many artifacts. Refreshments were also served.

TEA PARTY JUBILEE HELD

Salt Lake West Company celebrated their Jubilee on June 20, 2022, with a Tea Party theme. Daughters were asked to wear hats of all kinds with judges awarding sashes in various categories. A lunch of finger sandwiches, fruit, veggies, and chips was served while Daughters played games at their tables. A demonstration was given on the "language of the fans" and everyone practiced at their tables. Each Camp brought a tea set to decorate the tables.

HAPPY 100TH BIRTHDAY TO MOUNTAINVILLE CAMP!

Utah North Company celebrated Mountainville Camp's 100th Birthday at their Jubilee held August 1, 2022. A movie had been prepared by camp members which shared photos and memories of meetings, markers placed, and histories gathered since their first meeting on October 31, 1922. Tributes were paid to daughters, yesterday and today, who have established and preserved historical markers in Alpine and Highland, Utah, especially their Relic Hall.

Appreciation was also shared for all the camps that have been chartered since Mountainville. They include Highland, Timpanogos, Alpine, Box Elder, Temple View, Deer Haven, Cascade Springs, Honey Bee and Poppy Meadow. An original board game, which showed pictures of historical events over the past century, was placed on each table for the daughters to play during lunch.

Several Daughters created and rode on floats for the local Highland Fling and Alpine Day Parades.

AMMON SAGE CAMP PAYS TRIBUTE TO PIONEERS

Members of Ammon Sage Camp, Bonneville Company, Idaho, pay tribute annually to the early pioneers of that area. Camp members place especially designed flags next to select gravestones in the Ammon Cemetery a few days before Memorial Day and retrieve them the following week.

The flags have been posted by the same headstones for more than 12 years, even though Ammon Sage Camp has only existed for ten years. The E Dah Ho Camp did the research, identifying 16 people who had immigrated to Utah before the railroad, settled in the Ammon area, and were interred in the Ammon Cemetery. They had weather-proof flags professionally embroidered with the handcart motif and the phrase "Faith in Every Footstep 1847-1869," along with the DUP insignia. LaRue Swenson (now deceased) was in charge.

E Dah Ho Camp was divided and the Ammon Sage Camp was created with the Ammon Cemetery within its boundaries. Elaine McGary, a company officer, felt the tradition should continue, so Glenna Walker of the Ammon Sage Camp was made guardian of the flags and she is responsible for having them placed each year.

WAYNE COMPANY CELEBRATES JUBILEE

Wayne Company held its annual Fall Jubilee on Monday, September 19th, in the historic Torrey (Utah) DUP building. All seven Camps from Hanksville to Fremont, were represented. Forty-five members gathered to get acquainted, socialize, sing and laugh, play games, and add their handprint to our Company Heritage Quilt (currently in the making). Wayne Company also celebrated their 85th anniversary.

This wonderful group serves Wayne County communities through education and outreach, striving to preserve our pioneer past that inclues five historic buildings, a park, and several monuments.

Markers

CLARKSTON TITHING GRANARY MARKER

The Martin Harris Camp, Cache Far North Company, Utah, held a dedication for Marker #592 "Clarkston Tithing Granary" on September 22, 2022. This new ISDUP marker provides historical information about the Clarkston Tithing Granary that sits behind the marker and the role it played in the community. The granary houses the Clarkston Heritage DUP Museum, established in 2020. The Museum contains an impressive variety of artifacts. An open house for the Museum was held in conjunction with the dedication.

The marker has a beautiful line drawing depicting the wheat industry that was made by local artist, Lester Lee. The monument was built with stones from the original tithing granary foundation.

Daughters and other guests attend the dedication of the Clarkston Tithing Granary marker.

Pioneer Women of Today

KARON CUNNINGHAM COOK

On April 30, 2022, Karon Ann Cunningham Cook was presented a 50-year pin, celebrating her membership in DUP.

Karon was born April 27, 1941, to Richard and Erma Haymore Cunningham in Bisbee, Arizona. She grew up in Daughters JuliAnn Cook (joined ISDUP on her grandmother's 100th birthday), Karon C. Cook, and Sharilyn Cook Linn.

Arizona, surrounded by three generations of family members.

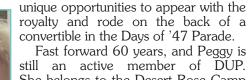

She joined DUP on May 4, 1971, following a visit by her aunt, Leah Haymore Kartchner, who invited her to attend the National Convention in Salt Lake City. At that meeting, Karon was introduced to Kate B. Carter, President of ISDUP. Mrs. Carter asked Karon when she had joined DUP. Karon told her she wasn't a member. Mrs. Carter replied, "Yes you are.

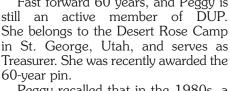

You just haven't joined — get this woman an application."

Karon is a member of the Wanda Briggs Asay Camp, Davis East Bountiful Company, Utah, and has served in many positions in her camp and company.

PEGGY PERRY

In the 1960s, Peggy Dubach Perry, age 18, wanted to enter the Days of '47 Pageant, so her mother signed her up as a member of Daughters of Utah Pioneers. Her sister had participated in the pageant the year before. Peggy was given many Peggy recalled that in the 1980s, a friend invited her to go to her monthly DUP meeting, and she has been attending ever since. Peggy loves DUP and she has learned about her ancestors and others' stories.

Peggy Perry

When Peggy moved to St. George from Pocatello, Idaho, she started finding out where some of her ancestors lived. She was amazed to learn about her own grandmother, Orphyl Myrtle Steven Debach who was raised in Cedar City where she played the piano and taught school. Another group of her ancestors, the DeMille family, lived and were later buried in Rockville, Utah, near the mouth of Zion National Park. Peggy stated that "Belonging to DUP has been a great blessing in my life!"

SHERRY PARKER

Sherlene "Sherry" Byington Parker has always had a deep love for her pioneer ancestry. She joined Daughters of Utah Pioneers when she was in her early 30s and has been a member for 53 years.

Sherry Parker

Sherry traces her ancestry back to 16 different early Utah Pioneer settlers. Between 1993 and 1995, she served with her husband and some of her children, as docents at This is the Place Heritage Park. She passed on her great love of her pioneer heritage to her children and grandchildren, sharing stories with them through written histories and social media. She currently serves as a Family History Consultant in her LDS ward.

JANICE BENNION

Janice Oliphant Betts Bennion received her 30-year pinwhile on a tour of the Utah State Cpitol with her camp. She was surprised she had been a member for so many years, and she treasures her DUP associations.

Janice Bennion

Janice joined DUP after going on a mission with her husband. Her mother had also been a member. She went to a few meetings in the Cottonwood, Salt Lake County area. After she found out how to start a new camp, she and 15 other women began a new camp in the area east of Van Winkle Expressway in Salt Lake City. It was while she was researching how to begin a camp that she decided to volunteer at the ISDUP library. One day she was asked a question and when she knew the answer, she was asked to be on the ISDUP Executive Board. Besides working in the library, she helped with the Days of '47 Pageant, and later became the pageant chairman.

When both her daughters were 18, she signed them up for DUP so they would receive the Legacy and become familiar with the organization. They have both served as ISDUP Board Members and her daughter, Jeanie, currently serves as the International Third Vice President and Outreach Chair.

Janice moved to City Creek Camp where she served in many positions. She is known for implementing valuable resource booklets with a phone and address directory for each member along with the assignments for the year.

Pioneer Mysteries

This issue's photo is of a handsome gentleman named Edward Anderson. We have three pictures of him. Two were taken in Gunnison, Utah. The third was taken in Pocatello, Idaho. Beyond this scanty information, we know nothing of this man. We would appreciate more information about him.

Thank you to all of you who follow this column.

LOUISA SWAIN FIRST WOMAN TO VOTE IN WYOMING

Lorene Sims, President of Albany Company, attended a reception at the Wyoming Women's History House celebrating 152 years since Louisa Swain was the first woman to vote in a Wyoming election. In October 2008, Congress passed a resolution making September 6th "Louisa Swain Day." It was celebrated for the first time in 2009 and continues annually in Laramie, Wyoming.

DUP REPRESENTED IN DOWDLE PUZZLE

On June 27, 2022, representatives of the Utah South Center Company in Spanish Fork were invited, along with other local dignitaries, to place the final pieces of an Eric

Dowdle puzzle depicting the Spanish Fork area. At the unveiling ceremony, Darla Butler, a DUP member, placed one piece. It depicts pioneers walking alongside a covered wagon which proudly displays a flag with the DUP logo. This scene is in the lower right-hand corner of the puzzle. The Spanish Fork DUP Museum also appears in the puzzle.

Darla Butler, along with Gloria Gardner and Cathy Holt points to the puzzle piece featuring DUP.
