Summer Issue • August 2017

Hi Daughters,

Isn't it good to see August arrive? We have time to take a deep breath and relax. Well, at least take a deep breath. It is time to get serious about canning and drying whatever is available and what we have too much of to use right now. I am past all that. Not that I have it all done, I am just done with it. I only do it for my enjoyment, which isn't very often. I have learned to enjoy other things less taxing.

I am exhausted from all of the fun we have to have during July. The big long weekend of July 4th and then getting ready for the long-g-g-g Pioneer celebration of the 24th, the dinners, parties, parades, rodeos and open houses. The SUPer DUPer day at Heritage Park was outstanding. Elder Holland was the hit of the night, of course. Yes, I do have to go to them all; that is the fun of it, for heaven sake. Really, there were some very tender moments with food for thought of the blessings we enjoy because of what those amazing pioneers did for our benefit. Pretty much all that they did was with us in mind. I hope that I might measure up so that they will be pleased to see me one day and that my efforts will be acceptable to them.

one day and that my efforts will be acceptable to them.

Our "Days of '47 Royalty" are outstanding this year. The royalty just keeps getting better and better each year. It has been a delight to see these lovely young ladies perform in the many events with such grace and beauty. They are representing DUP, Days of '47 and Utah very well. They spoke in my Sacrament Meeting; I was pleased. Their scholarships will have been well-earned and we are proud of them.

It will soon be time to get things rolling again for next year's DUP calendar. Is your 2017-18 camp calendar booklet ready to pass out at your first meeting? Have you had your training seminar for your camp officers? Be sure to invite those new ladies you are going to recruit to share DUP. You just might have to start a new camp to accommodate all of those friends. Oh, am I dreaming again? Not really. You Daughters are wonderful and just need to remember to share the wealth of DUP with those around you. I am pleased to announce that I have recruited eight new Regional Representatives. They will be helping in areas of Washington, Idaho, Oregon, and California. You will hear all about them in future issues. I am excited about having them with us as they serve as extended members of our International Board.

The digitizing project with FamilySearch is starting to shape up and we should be ready to announce it's availability very soon. We will let you know first with instructions on how to utilize it. This will be a longtime dream come true. Keep an eye on the website and Legacy.

My last district convention this year was with the Daughters in the Fresno, Tulare, San Luis Obispo, California convention, with Camp Sequoia in Visalia hosting. It was their usual outstanding presentation. I visited their very first convention a number of years ago. They treated me royally. Alisa Gubler, their lesson leader, gave me a tour of the city, including visiting the heroic-sized monument of "The End of the Trail" (an Indian warrior slumped on his horse with lance in hand). She introduced me to the mayor of the city, Edmund Gubler, her husband. At the end of the convention they presented me with a miniature bronze statue of "The End of the Trail." I think these Daughters are more intuitive than they realized.

And yes, it will be the "end of the trail" for me at the October convention. It is that time. I have been president for only six years and have served on the International Board for twentyfour years in various positions. It is time for me to finally shift gears into new directions. I will still be around and will respond to most any invitation to spend a little time with you. This is what I will miss most—the visiting, sharing time and lunch with you Daughters. It has been a wonderful experience for me to meet so many amazing people like yourselves and people from everywhere who have enriched my life. There have been many notable people who have come to my office or to various events where I have had the privilege to meet them. Some have become very good friends. Many of you have stopped by just to say, "hello," because you were in the museum. I thank you for that friendship. I am not dying, just going to be doing a little less DUP along with other things. Please, do not forget me too quickly! Remember, I still drive and I have a good GPS to help get me there, wherever "there" is. I think I will even miss stressing over this letter to you for each issue of Legacy. But you will have a fresh new look on the front of the newsletter. Now we will all go to our DUP camp meetings in September and continue to enjoy the outstanding lessons in the new series of Tales of Triumph.

Best wishes for the future,

Maurine Briefe

DAYS OF '47 ACTIVITIES

July is a month overflowing with fun-filled celebrations and events honoring Utah's pioneers. The theme for this year's Days of '47 Parade was "Pioneers: Visions of a New Horizon." All were dazzled by the creative and colorfully decorated floats including our own DUP Days of '47 Royalty float. Hundreds of people responded to the parade announcer's invitation to visit the Pioneer Memorial Museum. Many came, filling the museum with amazement and reflection along with the energy and joy only children can bring. The children made stand-up pioneer mini-dioramas and did twine lacing. But, the best activity held, which used both levels of the Carriage House, was the treasure hunt. Each child earned a bag of "gold" honey taffy at the end of their hunt.

The Days of '47 Royalty are available for appearances, singing performances and speaking engagements. Please contact their advisor, Cathy Ehlert, at 801-274-1224 or 801-580-8565 or casehlert@gmail.com.

SUNFLOWER CAMP SERVICE ACTIVITY

In December of last year, the Sunflower Camp, Washington Company, St. George, Utah held their annual Christmas Party. The hall and tables were decked with the Spirit of Christmas Holiday. Holiday songs and "Come, Come ye Saints" were sung with joy and thankfulness for our pioneer heritage.

The camp decided to do a service project for the "Dove Center" in St. George, which helps and assists abused women and children. Donated items were valued at $110.00 and cash. The center was very thankful the Daughters would be so willing to donate items that were greatly needed by the center.

Thanks to Debra Anderson, Sunflower Camp 1st Vice Captain, for planning and carrying through with this event.

DAVIS EAST BOUNTIFUL AND DAVIS BOUNTIFUL CENTER COMPANIES

The convention theme for the Davis East Bountiful Company and the Davis Bountiful Center Company of Utah was "All Aboard!" The companies' 22 camps celebrated the meeting of the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific railroads at Promontory Point in Utah on May 10, 1869. Both companies presented membership pin awards.

DAVIS HERITAGE COMPANY CONVENTION

On March 4th a lovely convention was held for the Davis Heritage Company in Woods Cross, Utah. Ruby Fielding from International was our guest speaker. We had an informative officers meeting and Ruby shared stories of her ancestors and other pioneers in her convention talk. A haunting violin duet, Ashokan Farewell was played by Carolyn Call and Isabell Stringham, accompanied by Coila Robinson. Lenore Peterson showed a corset from the 1800s and how it fit on the body. For lunch we served delicious soups, veggies and dips and fresh scones with a variety of toppings. Eighty-four daughters attended. Our company bought 87 books last year and turned in 34 histories to the ISDUP History Department. Isabell Stringham decorated the tables with stand-up paper dolls with old fashioned dresses saved from her youth. They were adorable. It was good to rub shoulders with the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers.

SPOKANE VALLEY OUTING

In November of last year, the Spokane Valley Company visited the Northwest Museum of Art and Culture, in Spokane, Washington. We toured the Lost Egypt exhibit and the Historic Campbell House. We enjoyed the exhibits and taste of local history. We had a luncheon and nice visit among the members of the different camps.

EE-DA-HOW CAMP JOINS PARADE

Daughters in the Ee-da-how Camp, Ada Company, Boise, Idaho participated in the Meridian Dairy Days Parade last year. Dressed in pioneer clothing and riding in and walking beside a 1931 Model-A Ford, driven by Fred and Judi Ornellas, were members of a three-generation DUP family. Posters proclaiming the goals of DUP hung on the car doors.

CAMP 47 PARTICIPATES IN FAMILY HISTORY FAIR

Camp 47, Weber Far South Center Company, Ogden, Utah participated in the Kingston Ward, Ogden Utah East Stake Family History Fair in March of this year. Our display was linked with the Relief Society, which sponsors a monthly writing club to encourage sisters to prepare their personal and family histories. Camp members Denise Call, Kristin Millard, Dodie Stallcup, Jan Sterrett, and Marilyn Taylor answered questions and mingled with other Fair exhibitors to share the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers program with neighbors and friends.

MARICOPA EAST COMPANY CONVENTION

The Maricopa East Company Convention was held in February 2017 in Mesa. Arizona, hometown of the five women in the photograph. LaPreal Johns, in the center, is an aunt to the other four women who are Lisonbee sisters and all five women grew up in Mesa. Three of the sisters are all members of the Anna K Wagonwheel Camp of Maricopa East Company. Anna B. Kleinman, who the Camp was named after, is the great-great-grandmother of all these DUP Daughters.

The oldest sister, LeeAnne Lisonbee Whitaker, second from the left, serves on the ISDUP Board and is the Docent Director of the Pioneer Memorial Museum in Salt Lake City, Utah. LeeAnne was the representative visitor from International to the convention. What a memorable convention and reunion it was for these Daughters, sisters and aunt!

VACAVILLE NUT TREE CAMP

Vacaville Nut Tree Camp, Solano Company, Solano, California celebrated Valentine's Day together at their February meeting.

There was an article on the DUP website about the origin of Valentine's Day and we thought what a fun idea to celebrate Valentine's Day at our February 13th meeting! We all brought valentines and goodies to share. We had cute bags to put all of our stuff in just like when we were kids in grade school. Remember those fun days? We had a great time!

"WHAT TO DO WHEN IT'S 100 DEGREES?"

Twenty-four young girls between the ages of 8-11 descended upon the DUP museum in SLC for an afternoon of fun out of the sun! South Weber 5th Ward, South Weber Utah Stake along with The East Millcreek 12th Ward, East Millcreek Stake, of the LDS Church in Weber and Salt Lake City, Utah teamed up as they treated their young girls to a delightful pioneer experience. A scavenger hunt, along with crafts in the carriage house, topped off the day. Pioneer games, button whizzers, little rag dolls, card stock covered wagons and a pioneer coloring activity book made the experience reminiscent of pioneer days. We didn't forget the honey taffy either. Imagine their surprise as they learned they were looking at the "real wagon" that Brigham Young rode in as he arrived in the valley. Oh, and what about John R. Moyle's wooden leg that he carved for himself so he could continue walking on his journey to work on the Salt Lake temple! The girls saw both of these wonderful items first hand in our museum. To top off a great day, the Days of '47 Royalty shared their talents with the girls. "Always do your best, and always remember you are loved," they said. A couple of girls even brought ancestors names from home to see if we had histories on them. They found three folders with a treasure trove of family histories. They were so excited. Looks like their parents and grandparents are doing their jobs by passing the stories along. Their interest was definitely sparked. A special thank you to those who participated and made this happen. Imagine an activity with no sunscreen needed!

For just a moment, Maren Cline, Brittny Millington and Tess Hanson, Days of '47 Royalty, and children of South Weber 5th Ward pause from their fun-filled activities.

FOURTH GRADE PIONEER WRITING CONTEST

As we were preparing for this year's Orderville Camp, Kane Company, Glendale, Utah meetings, we wanted to do things to get our small community involved in DUP. Utah history is part of the Fourth Grade curriculum, so Ann Bolander, a member of the camp, took the opportunity to involve Mrs. Susan Esplin's class at Valley Elementary in a writing contest about pioneers. To help the students get started, Ann and the students talked about pioneers, what they did, and who could be a pioneer. She then shared information about her pioneer grandfather, Byron Mendenhall and showed pictures of him. She remembered how he always made her laugh and shared how he would tease her. He called his animals "critters." She told stories about working on his farm. This fun information about her Grandpa Mendenhall helped the students get started on an essay about one of their pioneer ancestors.

students The showed interest, but the excitement intensified when Ann offered a prize for the top three winners. Mrs. Esplin worked hard encouraging them to write in their best handwriting and some included pictures. Ann presented the winners with a cash prize. First Place went to Hadely Harris, writing about James Brinkerhoff; Second Place went to Kaylee Brinkerhoff, writing about Harmon Samuel Judd, and Third Place went to Rachel Cox, writing about Ester Heaton.

In January of this year, Hadley and Rachel came to the Orderville Camp DUP meeting and presented their essays. The members of the camp enjoyed hearing about pioneer ancestors they were familiar with. The students were very excited to take a field trip across the parking lot to the DUP museum later in the year.

The Jackson Camp, Jacksonville Company, Jacksonville, Oregon presented Vickie Striley with the 40th Year Membership pin during their Christmas meeting last year. From the very beginning, Vickie has been one of the backbones of our camp. She has served in numerous leadership positions and is presently serving as the secretary/treasurer of the camp. She is the kind of person that can be depended on for anything and always has a smile on her beautiful face. Vickie is also a marvelously talented cook.

CAMP HENRY BALLARD AWARD

Robinette Tueller

Camp Henry Ballard, Cache North Company, Logan, Utah honored Daughter Robinette Tueller with an Outstanding Service Award pin. She was also awarded the Women of Faith and Fortitude commemorative museum pin, and the Sego Lily pin. Robinette has done an awesome job in the Logan Utah Pioneer Museum. She is keeping our history and legacy alive and prospering in our small home town in Logan, Utah. She also helps us as camp members to be active with our Outreach Programs and volunteer work towards the Pioneer Museum and Learning Program. Robinette has held many positions in the DUP at the camp and company level.

Robinette is affectionately known as "Rocking Robin" to her camp friends. Her life is fully blessed to be a grandmother. We are so proud of her accomplishments and of her good work to encourage others to do their part in history. Thank you from Camp Henry Ballard!

IMOGENE DALLEY

Imogene Dalley of the Logslide Camp, Salt Lake Far Southeast Company, Sandy, Utah was recently honored for her longtime devotion to DUP. Imogene was born in 1926 in Loa, Utah, and she has been a very active member of DUP for over 56 years. The camp recognized Imagene for her years of hosting meetings in her home, for the many daughters she has influenced and for the talents she has shared over the years. Throughout her life she has been an amazing example to her friends and family through her gardening, cake decorating, special birthday cards, hand-dipped chocolates, and guilting just to name a few. She and her husband, Dennis, have carried the pioneer spirit through their life activities. They grew up in communities where their ancestors were well known and respected. Each year Imogene plants the usual tomatoes, cucumbers, and other things, but her special attention is given to her beautiful irises, peonies and roses which still beautify her garden. Imogene has always looked to the future; she recently planted two small peach trees with every intention of harvesting peaches one day soon.

BETTY LIDDELL JOHNSON

Betty Liddell Johnson has been teaching the monthly lessons at the Daughters of Utah Pioneers at the American Fork Camp, Utah Timp Valley Company, American Fork, Utah for nearly 45 years. Our dear Betty is 96 years old and once again at this month's meeting gave a remarkable lesson on the pioneer experience. Betty has only missed four lessons in nearly 45 years of teaching. The remarkable thing is that Betty studies the lesson so well that she doesn't read the lesson, but tells the stories, making the pioneer experience so interesting. The Daughters of Utah Pioneers American Fork Camp honors our sweet Betty Johnson in her 96th year as a true friend to our Utah pioneer ancestors in sharing their stories.

BEEHIVE CAMP AWARDS

Beehive Camp Captain Janet Peer with Joanne Kettle.

GLENDA MAKIN, 50-YEAR PIN

Glenda Makin attends the Beehive Camp. Glenda has made many friends and introduced others to DUP. The Beehive Camp. Utah Timp Valley Company meets in American Fork, Utah.

JOANNE KETTLE, 50-YEAR PIN

Joanne Kettle also attends the Beehive Camp. Joanne says that her mother enrolled her in DUP when she was 26 years old. She has learned so much about the Utah Pioneers. 'We studied the counties of Utah when I was the lesson leader. I learn something every time I attend DUP." Joanne presently serves as Corresponding Secretary.

ATTENTION PRESIDENTS

Pioneer Mysteries

This photo of a couple was in the folder of Alexander (Sander) Anderson. The folder indicates that the extra photos are possibly family members. However, we do not know who these people are. Alexander Anderson was born in Richfield. Utah in 1867 and died in Baker, Oregon. If we can identify this couple, it may give us a lead on the other unidentified family photos in this file.

DOROTHY KENNINGTON PRESENTED AWARD

Officers of the Susan B. Cazier Camp, Lincoln Company, Afton, Wyoming recently visited member Dorothy Kennington at her home to honor her with a DUP Outstanding Service award. Captain Sandy Henderson, Vice Captains Shaire Call and Marie Cook, and Secretary Grace Marland surprised Dorothy with the award pin, certificate, roses and a cake to celebrate.

Dorothy is 90 years young and has been an outstanding and stalwart member of the camp for 29 years. During this time, she has faithfully attended the camp's monthly meetings and served in several positions. Dorothy, along with her late husband, Forrest, has also contributed to the Star Valley Historical Society since the organization's early days.

The day of the officers' visit, Dorothy also had other visitors; her daughter, Donna Beatty, with a brand new baby, the latest addition to the family. When asked how many great-grandchildren she now had, great-grandma said that she couldn't keep up with how many there were anymore, but she knew it was a lot. She has lived her life well, is loved and respected by many.

2017 FALL CONVENTION

October 14, 2017 • Davis Conference Center

Guest Speaker Patty Willis

Based on the diaries of her greatgreat-great-grandmother Patty Bartlett Sessions, playwright Patty Willis steps into the shoes of her ancestor, a Mormon midwife and healer, to explore, through storytelling and music, her remarkable journey west. During her lifetime, Patty Bartlett Sessions delivered 3,977 babies. Her community valued her for her great skill in both delivering babies and ministering to the sick. Patty remembers fording swollen rivers to deliver babies out on the plains. Patty Willis recounts Patty's remarkable life with humor, pride and regret.
